Dear Sirs:

See 17

I received your postal card of April 13th advising me that you had received my order for<sup>a</sup> silver and a bronze medal of Mr. Choate and stating that the silver medal had been sent me, and that you hoped to deliver the bronze medal about April 25th. I have not received either of these medals and, therefore, there must be some mistake about your having sent the silver medal to me. I trust that I shall receive both of them in due course.

Yours very truly,

TTS--H
